

UTCP Seminar Series

Thomas Metzinger with Stephan Schleim

Session 1

21 Feb. 2008 13:00-15:00 (Collaboration Room 3, Building 18)

Thomas Metzinger, Neuroethics: An Overview and Introduction
Discussion

Session 2

22 Feb. 2008 10:00-12:30 (Collaboration Room 3, Building 18)

Stephan Schleim, Neuroscience of Normative Decisions: Philosophical Implications?
Thomas Metzinger, Decision and Neuroethics
Discussion

Session 3

23 Feb. 2008 13:00-15:30 (Room 708, Building 14)

Stephan Schleim, Mind Reading: A Neuroethical Analysis
Thomas Metzinger, Problems of the Privacy of Mind
Discussion

Session 4

27 Feb. 2008 15:00-17:00 (Collaboration Room 3, Building 18)

Thomas Metzinger, The Wider Context: Sociocultural Implications and the Image of Man
Discussion

Session 5 (Conference day I)

28 Feb. 2008 13:00-16:00 (Collaboration Room 3, Building 18)

Junichi Kushita, Function and Value of Pleasure: From Brain Science to Japanese Traditional Poesy
Kei Yoshida, Altruistic Behavior: Lessons from Neuroeconomics
Toshihiro Suzuki, Neuroscience and Philosophy of Expertise: What We Should Know about Expertise
Thomas Metzinger, Value and Neuroethics
Discussion

Session 6 (Conference day II)

29 Feb. 2008 13:00-16:30 (Collaboration Room 3, Building 18)

Taichi Isobe, The Prospect of Neuroethics in Japan: Comparing Bioethics in Japan with That in the United States
Mineki Oguchi, Will the Ultimate Privacy Be Invaded? Mind-Reading Technology and the Privacy Problem
Stephan Schleim, Neuroscience of Normative Decisions: The Influence of Perspective-taking
Thomas Metzinger, Neuroethics in Germany
Discussion